

Terms & Conditions

For insurance purposes, licence checks will need to take place BEFORE your first lesson. If ANYTHING changes with regards your license or health conditions which may invalidate insurance or make you unsafe to drive ie points accumulated, it is your responsibility to inform me. Please make sure you can read a number plate from 20m. If you need corrective lenses to do this, you need to use them for driving. Although I am here to guide you, it is ALWAYS YOUR responsibility to abide with the law with regards to you being fit to drive, for example NO alcohol for 24 hours before a lesson please & no recreational drug use WHATSOEVER during your course of lessons. Any medically prescribed medication can have side-effects which make you drowsy. Please inform me if you are on any such medication & if in any doubt please consult your GP.

I reserve the right to cancel a lesson without refund if I believe you are unfit to drive**

Lesson cancellations MUST be done with AT LEAST 24 HOURS NOTICE with a TELEPHONE CALL (07920 729623) unless in extreme medical or family circumstances. No text messages / Facebook messages please. I reserve the right to charge for a lesson if these terms haven't been adhered to and any pre-paid lessons can be forfeited. If you arrive late to a lesson the lesson will end at the agreed time - I will have pupils after you. I will always try & contact you if you are not at the agreed lesson start location at the agreed time but if after 10 minutes I can not make contact, I will assume a 'no show' and the agreed lesson charge will be applied. If I for any reason am late or can not attend at the agreed time I will reschedule the lesson to a time that suits you. The usual refund policy will then apply. If you require collecting for or finishing a lesson at a different location to the agreed long-term location please give me at least 24 hours notice. Please also make sure I confirm this is OK to change. Failure to do this will result in a non-refundable lesson cancellation should I not be able to meet the other location.

GDPR: GDPR is a set of regulations replacing the Data Protection Act 1998. I need to keep data about you whilst you are learning to drive with me. Please see my privacy policy for further information. By signing these Terms & Conditions you agree to this privacy policy.

Driving test booking:

When booking your driving test please make sure I can be available for the use of my car. If you do book the test and I'm not available you will have to either change the test date or make your own arrangements for a car for the test. The driving test is the only time I will not be present with you in the car as a supervising driver. Therefore any damage incurred to the car when on test is YOUR responsibility, on lessons it is mine, unless I deem you to be being reckless.

If DVSA cancel your driving test this is not my responsibility and my normal terms and conditions apply. If you feel the DVSA owe you money due to me charging for the car use on a test that has been cancelled short notice then again that is between you and them and not me. There is an online form on the DVSA website to claim for reimbursements from DVSA, if you need any assistance please let me know.

In regards to DVSA examiner strike action again this is out of or control and unless you have an official email stating your test is cancelled we must go to the test centre, failure to do this could result in you losing your test fee (and being unable to claim for any other incurred expenses through DVSA.

There is an app to help you find a nearer test date. The app is called 'Driving Test Cancellations NOW!' and if you do use this, please quote my unique ADI code: FH9QT

Any questions about this please contact me.
